

Brooke Creighton

Director Administration

As director of administration, Brooke maintains responsibility for HSE Global's administration and support services. Brooke brings over 25 years industry experience working across health services, aged care and construction, prior to 10 years of professional services with HSE Global.

Brooke has managed the growth of the HSE Global business, and support team growing from 3 people in 2010 to over 34 staff and contractors operating across 3 countries in 2020. Brooke's focus on ensuring efficient and professional relationships with HSE Global partners and customers has been critical to the success of HSE Global.

Brooke believes strongly in the HSE Global value of family first, believing this is what sets HSE Global apart from other consultancies. Brooke's passion and belief in what HSE Global provides our partners is also strongly aligned to the value of family first. Brooke simply believes we should treat all of our partners and customers as family, to ensure a positive and productive working relationship.

Brooke resides in Kiama with her husband and 2 daughters. She enjoys spending time with family and friends over a nice bottle of wine.
