

Glenn McCluskey

Mental Health and Wellbeing Facilitator (Principal Master MHFA Instructor)

Glenn McCluskey is an executive level business professional with extensive experience transforming and growing businesses across Australia, USA and the Asia Pacific Region. Glenn is passionate and driven to 'give back' using my experience and knowledge to assist businesses and their teams in the pursuit of business growth, continuous improvement, personal development, career transition and good mental health / wellbeing. The experience and key skills offered can be summarised as follows:

Glenn is an accredited Mental Health First Aid instructor with many years first-hand experience in supporting people experiencing mental health challenges. Driven by my experience and desire to help others, he has partnered with an experienced Psychologist to develop a Mental Health / Wellbeing Support Kit. These kits have been developed to assist managers in connecting and supporting employees, team members and/or students and their families.
