

Rosie Bartlett

Mental Health and Wellbeing Facilitator (Principal Master MHFA Instructor)

Rosie Bartlett is a Principal Master Mental Health First Aid Instructor with over 14 years' experience training in Mental Health First Aid, suicide prevention, resilience training, and other mental health and drug and alcohol programs.

With a demonstrated history of working across Accounting and Professional Services, Acting and Modelling, Active Communities and Mental Health, Building and Construction, Community Services, Defence, Disability, Drug and Alcohol Services, Education (Early Childhood, Schools and Higher Education), Employment Services, Hospitality, Insurance, Local and State Government, Manufacturing, Medical, Mining and Resources, Non-Government Organisations and Peak Bodies, Retail, Small Business, Tech Companies, Unions and Wine.

Delivering training and presented at conferences across Australia, offering both accredited and non-accredited programs both publicly and in-house, face to face and online. Building upon acting, modelling and presenting experience in Australia and South Korea, presenting demonstrations, lead in photography shoots, supporting promotional activities and recording videos.